

My wife & I vote in all elections and will be watching this issue. We listen to satellite radio and to our local radio stations as well. Satellite radio is a great improvement over local stations quality and their wild commercials. We also have cable TV with local stations so we can enjoy the quality it provides. Please allow the radio stations and satellite radio compete on a level field and let the consumers vote with their wallets on what they listen to. William D. McGrath